Gary's style is swing, big band and easy listening music, in the style of the Rat Pack, Michael Bubl  and Andy Williams. Each event is different, so call us and we'll help put something special together for you. Here are some popular options:

What they say...

"For the last 24 years I have organised the event ... without a shadow of a doubt this was the best ever."

Police Federation Silver Jubilee Dinner

"I had heard your demo CD so I knew you were good, but even I didn't realise you would be so incredible! You are the talk of the town."

Sally Burgos, New York, Wedding

"the perfect entertainment for our New Year's Eve dinner party."

Barbara Dickson

"There are not many singers who could perform in such a small and intimate atmosphere. You judged the audience to perfection and my client [Rothman's] is quite delighted."

Clive Thomas, Prestige Promotions

"The client [BT] is very happy with the event and we've received a number of thank you letters from guests already."

Motive Force for BT event

"My phone has never stopped with people raving about Gary and his band! They made the night the most successful one anyone can remember. They'll definitely be back!"

Major Rick Attard, Hullavington, Wilts

"Reliable, professional ... for 3 years running Gary and his band have been perfect!"

Lord Moynihan, Annual SIA Dinner

"What can I say except you've done it again Gary! You handled the evening beautifully and everyone loved it - in fact our clients have already re-booked for next year!"

Libby Battaglia, Motivaction plc, Florence, Italy

"Every song he sang was word and note perfect and confirmed the belief of many in his audience, now surely his "fans", that he is the best young singer of the Sinatra era of melodies in the country, if not the world... his presentation of all of these well-loved classics was performed with a panache which would have pleased 'The Guv'nor' himself."

Perfectly Frank Magazine

"Gary sang this flawlessly and every single word could be heard perfectly. Even the members of the CBSO were applauding after the 2 encores. The publicity for the show used the song title 'Unforgettable' and that is how I shall think of the evening."

Clive Fuller – Encore Magazine

"One of the best voices Britain has ever produced."
